CONSTITUTION

Preamble
The Australian Council for Adult Literacy was established in Adelaide on 28th October, 1976 by the Working Party on Adult Literacy of the 1976 National Conference of the Australian Association of Adult Education. The Working Party considered that there was an urgent need to promote nation-wide action to assist adults with inadequate levels of literacy, and it saw the establishment of the Council as a necessary step to this end.

1. NAME
The name of the Council shall be The Australian Council for Adult Literacy Incorporated.

2. PURPOSE
The purpose of the Council is to contribute to the development of adult literacy, numeracy and basic education by promoting co-operation among interested organisations and individuals both governmental and non-governmental, and by undertaking and encouraging appropriate study, research and action.

POWERS
The Council shall not be maintained for the purpose of trading or securing any pecuniary profit to any member of the Council and no remuneration shall be paid to any member of the Council except as provided herein.

3. MEMBERSHIP
(a) Any person interested and/or involved in the provision of adult literacy services shall be eligible for full membership of Council and any interested organisation shall be eligible for organisational membership of Council, provided that the Executive have at all times the discretion to accept or reject any application for membership of the Council.
